Course Description: This course is a survey course, designed to explore the major concepts in corporate finance. Topics include Time Value of Money; Net Present Value/Internal Rate of Return; Valuation of Stocks and Bonds; Financial Statements/Ratios; Managing Growth; Discounted Cash Flow; Risk, Return and the Cost of Capital; Capital Structure; Dividends; Raising Capital/Going Public; Mergers and Acquisitions; and Corporate Restructuring.

The course focuses on applications of finance to assist students outside the Business School to understand financial statements, apply financial analytical techniques, and learn the basics of the capital markets. Note: students will not be expected to have prior knowledge of course concepts.

Goals of the Course:

- Gain understanding of the financial environment in which firms operate
- Mastery of the time value of money concept and its applications such as bond and stock valuation,
- An understanding of the risk and return relationship in the financial market
- An understanding of the corporate capital budget, capital structure, and working capital management decision making process
- Read and understand information from popular financial media.

Students are expected to prepare for class by completing all readings PRIOR to each class meeting. Thoughtful and constructive class participation is expected, as it will both help you to better understand the material and enhance the learning process for all. In addition, students will be expected to read news websites on a daily basis to keep abreast of financial events.
